

The best thing ever

MELISSA FAGAN LAUREN NEL STEFANIA ORIGGI

Muzi loves to build things.
He dreams of building
the best thing ever.

Once he built a shelter
for his toys.

But it wasn't the best thing ever.

Yesterday he built a bridge
for his animals.

It was a good thing.
But not the best...

Today Muzi is going to visit uGogo.

He is sad. Without his toys, how can he build
the best thing ever?

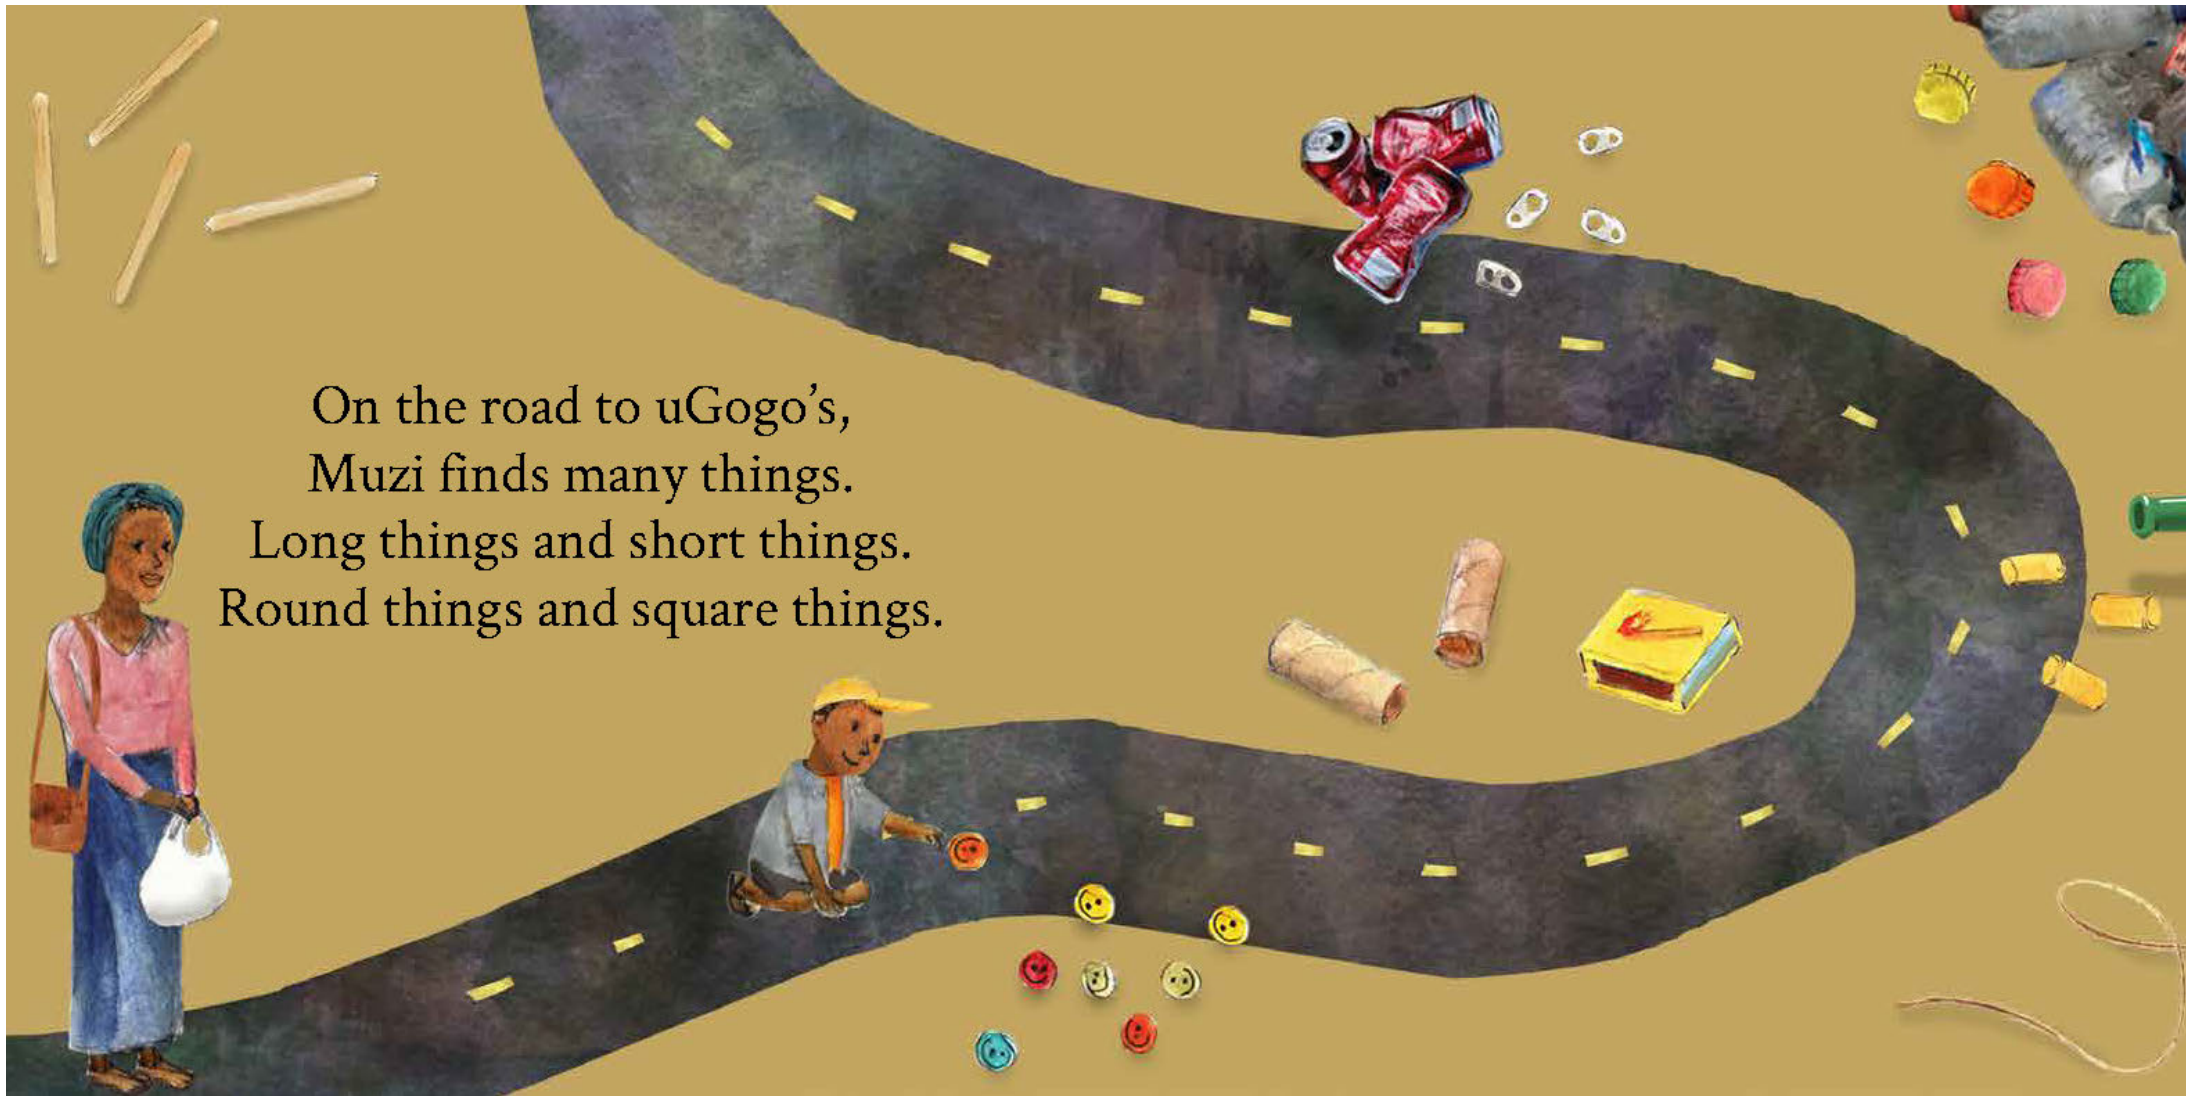

At the bus stop, Muzi is amazed.
He sees red things and blue things.
Small things and big things.
New things and old things.

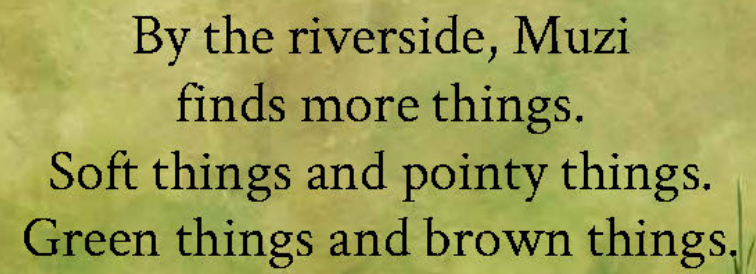

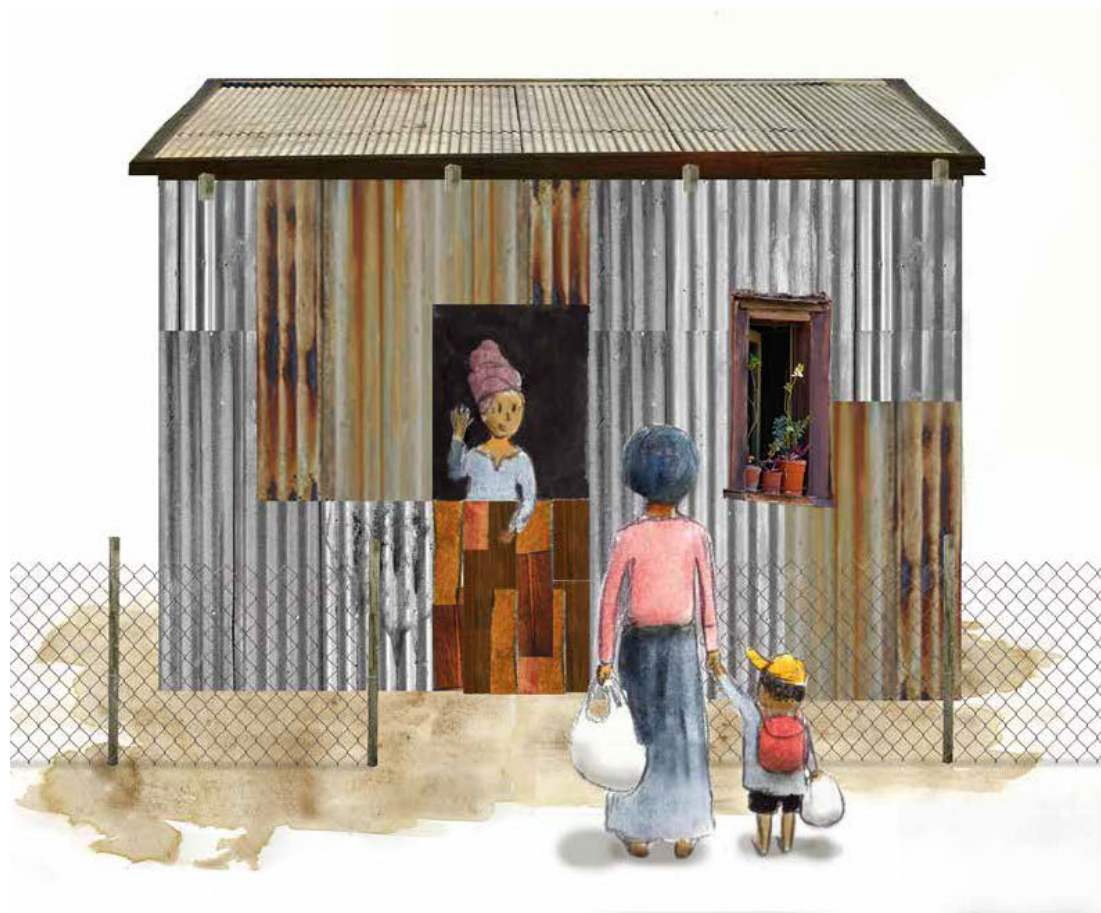

Muzi has a new idea for building
the best thing ever.

On the road to uGogo's,
Muzi finds many things.
Long things and short things.
Round things and square things.

Look, Muzi! We are here.

While uGogo bakes for the hungry travellers...

Muzi builds.

Look Gogo, a new house for you.

Oh, Muzi, laughs Gogo.

This is the best thing ever!

Gogo, Gogo! says Muzi.

The world is full of toys.

Look what I can build.

The best thing ever
